

The Richard III Society

Patron: HRH The Duke of Gloucester KG GCVO

London & Home Counties Branch

2017-18 Events Programme

All lectures are held in the afternoon, in the Wolfson Conference Suite at the IHR – Institute of Historical Research, Senate House, London.

1st July: ‘Adventures in writing historical fiction’, Toni Mount will speak about her medieval crime fiction series, featuring Simon Foxley. The third book in the series, The colour of cold blood, was published in Spring 2017

21st October: Chris Skidmore – ‘Richard III: Brother, Protector, King: the events of 1483 re-examined’ in conjunction with his new biography of Richard.

11th November: Joanna Laynesmith – lecturing on her new biography of Cecily, Duchess of York.

27th January 2018: TBC Dr John Ashdown-Hill, MBE – further work on his DNA projects, or, his biography of Cecily Neville.

The Richard III Society

Patron: HRH The Duke of Gloucester KG GCV0

24th February 2018: Bob Woosnam-Savege – ‘Killed the Boar, Shaved his Head’ - the Death of Richard III’.

24th March 2018: Branch AGM and Caroline Neuberg on ‘The sorrowful lamentations of Mistress Shore’.

28th April 2018: TBC but potentially Philippa Langley with latest research on ‘The Missing Princes’ project.

Further information is available from the Secretary.

Secretary: Elizabeth Noakes.