

The Richard III Society

Patron: HRH The Duke of Gloucester KG GCVO

London & Home Counties Branch

2018 Events Programme

All lectures are held in the afternoon, in the Wolfson Conference Suite at the IHR – Institute of Historical Research, Senate House, London.

27th January 2018: Joyce M Filer - ‘The Soul Suffers No Harm’: the medieval experience of disease (note this lecture will take place in the Large Conference Room at the I.H.R. at 2pm)

24th February 2018: Bob Woosnam-Savege – ‘Killed the Boar, Shaved his Head’ - the Death of Richard III’.

24th March 2018: Branch AGM and Caroline Neuberg on ‘The sorrowful lamentations of Mistress Shore’.

28th April 2018: ‘The Looking for Richard Project’ and ‘The Missing Princes Project and HRH’ – Philippa Langley, MBE

Please note: this lecture is open to any Society members who wish to attend, whether Branch members or not, but if the latter, please contact the Branch Secretary to request full details and advise attendance.

Further information is available from the Secretary.

Secretary: Elizabeth Noakes.