Publisher: The Richard III and Yorkist History Trust in association with Paul Watkins of Donnington

Subjects covered: Richard Beauchamp; Anne Beauchamp; manuscripts; dress; arms; armour; society

Summary: The Beauchamp Pageant is a late fifteenth century illustrated life of Richard Beauchamp, Earl of Warwick (1382 - 1439), probably commissioned by Anne Beauchamp, Countess of Warwick.

It incorporates fine, extremely detailed line drawings which are works of art in their own right, but provide a unique insight into late medieval society, dress, arms and armour. Dr Sinclair provides an introduction, describing the origins, purpose and history of the manuscript, as well as the first detailed biography of Richard Beauchamp, along with an interesting description to accompany each of the illustrations.
