THE ROYAL FUNERALS OF THE HOUSE OF YORK AT WINDSOR

Anne F. Sutton and Livia Visser-Fuchs with Ralph A. Griffiths

This study is a companion volume to the Reburial of Richard Duke of York. It presents in the same format and with five colour and twenty-one black and white illustrations everything that is known about the funerals of Edward IV (1483), Queen Elizabeth Woodville (1503), their son George (1479) and their daughter Mary (1482). Each funeral has an introduction discussing all the details of the ceremony, followed by an edition of the surviving documents. Also included are a study and edition of all the surviving verse laments on the death of Edward, a new discussion of his tomb and chantry in St George's Chapel – what it looked like and where it was situated – and an account of the discovery of his tomb and remains in 1789. Finally there is an up-to-date survey of the many locks of Edward's hair preserved in various collections.

152 pages, 4 pages in full colour, 21 black and white figures and index.
